

Samples, Framed Pieces & Literature

Hilton
STUDIO

Increasing Sales

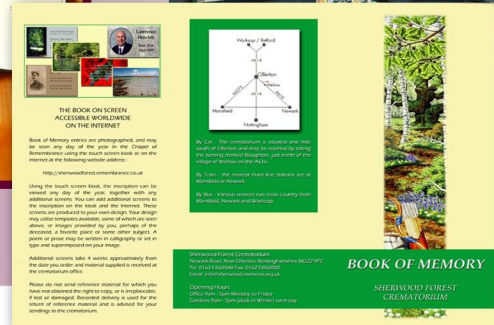

Today, more than ever before, the success of any form of memorial depends upon good presentation. As you would expect, Hilton Studio offers a range of services that embrace both the design and production of the highest quality literature supporting all aspects of our customers operations.

Each project is tackled individually, ensuring a unique end product that accurately meets your requirements whilst drawing from our considerable experience in this area. Projects range from bespoke leaflets for group or individual memorials through to framed pieces, samples and commissioned photography.

Framed Pieces

Memorials Leaflets

Our design and print services are not just limited to the cremation industry with many projects including poster design, special commemorative framed pieces and bespoke artwork and design completed for many different organisations.

